

Journey Together for Justice

LENTEN SERIES 2012

The Pursuit of Justice and the Common Good

“And what does the Lord require of you? To act justly, and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God.”

Micah 6:8

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 29:

The Biblical Roots of Living Justly for the Common Good

What do we learn from Jesus' teaching, Scripture, tradition and church teaching about living justly and the common good?

Speaker: Rev. Joseph J. Fortuna, S.T.D.

Father Fortuna is pastor of Our Lady of the Lake, Euclid and adjunct professor, St. Mary Seminary School of Theology. Pastoral experiences have included St. Sebastians Church, Akron, and Ascension Church on Cleveland's West Side. His course offerings and presentations at parishes have included the relationship of worship and culture, the new Roman Missal, and other areas of sacramental theology and liturgy.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7:

The Challenge of Living Justly for the Common Good

What are the challenges we face as consumers, citizens, and Catholic Christians when we allow the common good to impact our decisions?

Speaker: Maureen McCarthy, O.S.U., D.Min.

Her background includes being an educator at every level; national and international presentations on Scripture and spirituality; leadership roles in healthcare administration for the Ursuline Sisters of Cleveland; membership on numerous educational and healthcare boards.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 14:

Opportunities to Live Justly Here and Now

What are the organizations and programs that exist in our community which are providing opportunities for us to practice justice and further the common good?

Speakers: Team from Humility of Mary Housing, Inc.

Humility of Mary Housing Ministry provides family, transitional, and senior housing facilities and programs for the needy of our community.

Cathy Walsh, Operations and Development Director
Melissa Massey-Flinn, HM Life Opportunity Services
Bryan Kessler, HM Life Opportunity House
Karen Walsh, Collaborative Initiative to End Human Trafficking
Kim Headrick, Manager of Senior Housing

St. Hilary's is pleased to be collaborating with our neighbors at Faith Lutheran Church and pastor Jean Hansen in this Lenten Series. Clearly the work of the Gospel is more effectively accomplished when we join with other Christian communities in this effort.

To that end, we will alternate the location of this series. The schedule will be:

Wednesday February 29 • St. Hilary's

Wednesday March 7 • Faith Lutheran

Wednesday March 14 • St. Hilary's

6:00 p.m.

Soup Supper

7:00 p.m.

Evening Prayer

7:30 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.

Presentation and group discussion

Babysitting will be provided.

Please contact the parish office to register for the soup supper and for babysitting. Walk-ins welcome for Evening Prayer and the presentations. 330-867-1055, church@sthilarychurch.org
